

It is estimated that over 20,000 sheep were killed by dogs in Ohio last year, and many more were killed in the State of Maine last year!

Thomas Smith, the veteran buyer of Bridgewater, has handled over 7000 barrels of apples the present season. The crop in the western part of the State was never so heavy before. Mr. Smith's house is taken in three miles of his house, and has taken over 3000 barrels of fruit.

Hon. Suel Foster, a noted horticulturist, died at Muscatine, Iowa, last month. Mr. Foster had looked on the death of his wife with great sorrow, and the State regretted the great loss to the State.

It is not only because of his eminence as a horticulturist, but as an honorable gentleman and warm-hearted and faithful citizen.

The readers of the Farmer will appreciate the Union Stock Market reports given weekly in the Farmer. Mr. C. L. Chapman, who kindly writes them, is one of the largest dealers in live stock in New England. His reports will be of great value to all stock owners, and his pointed advice occasionally appended to those reports should be carefully noted.

Mr. Libby's services will be of great value to the readers of the Farmer.

Farmers should at all times be on the lookout against the "Bull." The Bull is a cat swindler is being worked with greater success in the west. A correspondent from the "Green" Bulletin writes from Ohio:
